"150 Voice" Project - Youth Workshops

Come one, come all and join in on the fun with other youth at the McNabb Community Center in Ottawa for a day of Song, Dance, and Afro-Caribbean Drumming hosted by The Toronto Children's Concert Choir & Performing Arts Company (www.TC3.ca). These workshops are offered to provide "budding creatives" a chance to experience the performing arts in an exciting Afrocentric setting. Everyone is welcome! The cost whether you register for 1 or all 3 workshops is $20.00 flat. Each workshop will be 45 minutes and led by an expert TC3 instructor. Workshops will happen in rotation, with a break in between for lunch (you can bring your own litterless lunch or buy something delicious food on the spot).

VOCAL workshops Come learn some foundational techniques of singing with soul. As a bonus, we'll teach you a song or two from TC3's vibrant repertoire. Everyone who participates in this workshop can perform in the evening with TC3 (see GREAT NEWS below).

DANCE workshops Jump, soar and leave it on the floor! No matter the skill level all you need to bring is your enthusiasm to learn some Afro-Caribbean dance techniques and we'll do the rest.

AFRO-CARIBBEAN DRUM workshops We got the beats and we want to share them with you! Use one of our djembes drums or bring your own. We'll cover some history and foundational drumming techniques. By the end of this workshop you will love drumming as much as we do.

Here's that GREAT NEWS we promised! Have you ever wanted to experience performing on stage? Every youth who participates in the vocal workshop, will get a free ticket to the evenings concert and get to perform with TC3 during the evening concert.

WE ARE EXCITED TO SHARE OUR LOVE FOR CULTURAL PERFORMING ARTS WITH YOU!
